

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF MISSISSIPPI

IN RE: LINDSEY HANNIGAN

CHAPTER 7
CAUSE NO.: 16-14201-JDW

RESPONSE TO ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

---

COMES NOW, the undersigned, Brandon Leslie, and files this Response to Order to Show Cause, would show unto the Court the following:

FACTS

This matter involves the settlement of the Debtor's personal injury action resulting from a slip and fall at a Kroger grocery store. At the time of the action, the Debtor, Lindsey Hannigan, had filed Bankruptcy Protection under Chapter 7 of the United States Bankruptcy Code.

On or about February 15, the undersigned filed the first Application to Employ as Special Counsel with this Honorable Court. On that date the undersigned also filed an Application for Fee Contract. Exhibit A. The Application for Approval of Fee Contract was denied. Exhibit B. The Court did Order the undersigned to submit an Order Approving Application for Employment.

Through March and April 2017, the undersigned was in contact with the Trustee's office regarding this claim and moving forward. Exhibit C. All Orders were submitted as requested. Exhibit C.

On April 25, the Court directed the undersigned to submit new Orders. As can be seen from the email exchange between myself, the Trustee, and Regina Mullins, my paralegal, we were utterly confused about why our previous Orders were insufficient or what was needed to remedy the situation. Not only were we seeking assistance from the Trustee, but the email exchange on this day indicates we sought assistance from the Court clerk, as well. Exhibit D.

On April 28, 2017, the Court entered another Order directing the undersigned to submit a new proposed Order. Exhibit E. As the email exchange between myself and my paralegal indicate, at this point I am at a complete loss what the Court is requiring us to submit and why previous Orders submitted are insufficient. Exhibit E.

On May 16, 2017, the Court entered another Order denying the Application Approving Fee Contract. Exhibit F. On this date, the Court also entered an Order denying the Application to Employ. Over the next two weeks we sought to correct any deficiencies. At this point I am exacerbated and getting frustrated. As cited in an email exchange on this day "All our orders were denied." Exhibit G. On June 13, 2017, my email to the trustee states, "All my Motions and Petitions have been denied and dismissed. I called the clerk and she said there was no longer anything pending. This whole claim has confused me." Exhibit H. On June 15, 2017, we tried filing another Order, and on the following day we received another notice indicating that the Order was deficient. Exhibit I.

During this time, I was in constant contact with the Debtors and was aware of their situation. Mr. Hannigan was not able to work due to a significant injury. Their financial situation was dire. I was representing Mr. Hannigan in a worker's compensation case that was being denied, and, as such, he was not receiving any medical care or financial assistance. I was also representing them, pro bono, on an eviction proceeding. These were good people, and things were bad.

At this point I was frustrated. For five (5) months I had attempted to get this personal injury settlement approved, and everything was getting denied, and I didn't know why. To this day, I still don't.

On or about June 19, 2019, I disbursed to the Debtors. The breakdown in the disbursement was as follows:

Total Amount of the Settlement:	$15,000.00
JMB Expenses:	$ 131.52
JMB Attorney Fees:	$ 5,250.00
Delta Rehab:	$ 870.00
Net Proceeds to the Client:	$ 8,748.48 Exhibit J .

At the time of disbursement, we were also under the impression that the bankruptcy had been discharged. Internal notes from around that time indicate that the Debtor was calling our office daily to get these funds disbursed because her bankruptcy was over. Exhibit K. It appears that my office did look to see if it was discharged, and it appeared so. Exhibit K.

CONCLUSION

I take full responsibility for disbursing these funds to the Debtors. This was my mistake, and I sincerely apologize to this Court. I was frustrated. For some reason, everything that I was submitting to the Court was being rejected. On multiple occasions, I reached out for help to both the Trustee and the Clerk. I don't think they knew why everything was being denied. I also had reason to believe the bankruptcy was concluded. My failure to comply was not willful malice towards this Court, or an effort to deceive. I tried on multiple occasions to comply. Meanwhile my clients were struggling. They needed help.

I understand that I am not in compliance with this Court's rules. I accept responsibility. I ask for mercy, but will accept whatever sanction this Court imposes.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED, this the 9th day of February, 2019.

Brandon

Judge Woodard does not approve fee contracts. He will consider and award fee after case settled, etc upon filing an application for compensation for special counsel. I have not had a case yet where he did not approve a fee commiserate with your contract. Your employment is approved. So, we only need an order on that motion.

There is an assignment from Delta Rehab. It was not submitted in the bankruptcy petition. Her husband, Sean, does not have a Loss of Consortium claim with this claim, however, does have a worker's comp claim pending.

Brandon,
I never received a proposed order from you on your Applications so I have prepared an Order on each so the Court will not dismiss or strike your applications as there is an order to submit pending. Both proposed orders are attached under one pdf. Judge Woodard will only approve employment and not the contract, per se, or the fee, on the front end. If you will sign approving both and return same to me by email, I will upload them to the Court.

Also attached in pdf is the most recent notice of response/hearing time on the Application to Compromise Controversy. It appears the date the certificate of service and, presumably the date notice and a copy of the application was served on all parties, was short of the 21 day notice requirement. Please reissue proper notice and file a cert. of service with the Court. It looks like the notice needs to go out today to provide for 21 days notice.

Also, in your application, you reference a medical bill to Delta Rehab and Sports Medicine. Was this debt incurred prior to the bankruptcy filing? If so, was there a valid assignment executed?

The total settlement funds should be submitted to me as Trustee for the Bankruptcy Estate of Lindsey R. Hannigan. Is there a claim by her husband, Sean T. Hannigan? I will issue an estate check for any fees/expenses, etc., as may be ordered by the Court.

If you have any questions, please call me.

Brandon,

I never received a proposed order from you on your Applications so I have prepared an Order on each so the Court will not dismiss or strike your applications as there is an order to submit pending. Both proposed orders are attached under one pdf. Judge Woodard will only approve employment and not the contract, per se, or the fee, on the front end. If you will sign approving both and return same to me by email, I will upload them to the Court.

Also attached in pdf is the most recent notice of response/hearing time on the Application to Compromise Controversy. It appears the date the certificate of service and, presumably the date notice and a copy of the application was served on all parties, was short of the 21 day notice requirement. Please reissue proper notice and file a cert. of service with the Court. It looks like the notice needs to go out today to provide for 21 days notice.

Also, in your application, you reference a medical bill to Delta Rehab and Sports Medicine. Was this debt incurred prior to the bankruptcy filing? If so, was there a valid assignment executed?

The total settlement funds should be submitted to me as Trustee for the Bankruptcy Estate of Lindsey R. Hannigan. Is there a claim by her husband, Sean T. Hannigan? I will issue an estate check for any fees/expenses, etc., as may be ordered by the Court.

If you have any questions, please call me.

Hi Ms. Maddox,

We previously filed the Certificate of Service for the Notice of Hearing on 4/14/17 and attached all relevant docs... Doc 44. It was mailed to everyone on the certificate. Can you tell me what we are missing on this?

Thank you,

Thanks, Selene. I thought this was previously done and submitted.

There is an assignment from Delta Rehab. It was not submitted in the bankruptcy petition. Her husband, Sean, does not have a Loss of Consortium claim with this claim, however, does have a worker's comp claim pending.

It appears the court issued a new notice because the certificate indicated the notice was served on 4/14/17 and that did not allow 21 days notice when responses were due 5/3/17. I just saw the Court's notice was reissued and thought I would give you a heads up.

Screw this. Lindsey calling every day. BK discharged. I'm just giving her the money. Turning in the settlement memo. But we need to figure out HOW to do this properly for next time. This was a nightmare.
